

Handcuffing Seminar

Certification Course

December 4 & 11, 2021

The Law Enforcement Training Association (Police Judo) is the basis for this unique opportunity to learn the fine art of assessing, controlling, and handcuffing a subject safely and effectively with skills taken from the street using the H-CUFF method.

- ✓ Protect yourself legally, morally, and ethically
- ✓ Learn how to ‘own’ suspects using the “H-CUFF Method of Handcuffing”
- ✓ Get expert instruction on controlling and handcuffing resistive and combative people in a fun, creative, and healthy atmosphere

Dates:	Saturday, December 4, 2021 Saturday, December 11, 2021 (10-hour training session over two Saturdays)
Time:	0900 hrs-1400 hrs (both dates)
Price Options:	LETA members $200 Non-LETA members $250
Location:	POLICE JUDO HEADQUARTERS 5487 Lane St, Burnaby, BC V5H 2H4

Open to police, corrections, sheriffs, loss prevention, jail guards, JIBC and Police Judo students, and private security.

- Training cuffs will be supplied
- Wear comfortable workout gear
- Certificates will be issued upon successful completion
- Ample time for hands-on training

Contact info@policejudo.ca for registration related questions.

Registration at <https://letassociation.com/category/upcoming-events/>